

GDPR / Data Protection Declaration[¶]

Clinical notes : Confidential patient notes will only be kept as a single copy in paper form. (By Law these must be retained for at least 7 years following any treatment.)

Data storage : Your contact details may also be stored on paper records by clinic reception. I only allow this provided that they have a clear data policy that does not allow for use by any third parties or for any use beyond bona fide communication with you regarding my practice.

Data storage : Your contact details and any email communication between us may also be stored :

- i. on paper and email records by clinic reception. I only allow this provided that they have a clear data policy that does not allow for use by any third parties or for any use beyond bona fide communication with you regarding my practice.
- ii. in electronic form by myself (email, online diary & booking systems).
- iii. in electronic form by suppliers of my electronic/online diary and booking systems. I only allow this provided that they have a clear data policy that does not allow for database access or use by themselves or any third parties.

Please delete all except one of the following options :

0. (NO CONTACT) Please do not contact me directly, except where necessary due to Coronavirus Test-and-Trace
1. (RESTRICTED) I agree that you may use my contact details as necessary regarding current treatment/appointments
2. (STANDARD) I agree that you may use my contact details as necessary regarding current treatment/appointments. Also to hear major future changes to practice details.
3. (FULL PERMISSION) I agree to receive occasional (no more than 2/year) email/text information about available workshops or clinic details.

Any permissions may be revoked or changed at any time by sending a direct letter or email, or you can reply email to any circular you receive from me with the word "REMOVE" on the subject or top contents line.

(Signature)

(Date)

¶ This must be signed due to changes in EU/UK law affective from 25th May 2018